Custom Kits and Trays

Built to YOUR specifications...
it's what we do!

perfectly designed.

For decades, Centurion Medical Products has specialized in creating custom procedural kits and trays. Our sales executives work directly with you to design the tray perfectly suited to your unique requirements. There's never a reason to compromise with a Centurion® kit - you won't have to toss out unnecessary supplies or make do with products you don't want - we build exactly what you need for the best outcomes, which has a positive effect on your bottom line. We're capable of working with you on virtually all procedures. Ask your Centurion sales executive how we can best serve your facility today!
